

CALL FOR SPEAKERS!

ROCKY MOUNTAIN AUDIO VIDEO EXPO

October 3 & 4, 2024

4 Seasons Ballroom
Colorado Convention Center

Submissions Deadline: Friday, May 17!

Are you passionate about cutting-edge audio-video technology and techniques? Here's your chance to shine! Speak at the Rocky Mountain Audio Video Expo (AVX) and share your knowledge with professionals eager to learn about the latest advancements in the field. Inspire others while connecting with like-minded individuals at the forefront of the AV world. Seize this opportunity to showcase your expertise, while contributing to the collective growth and success of the audio video industry.

AVX features numerous exhibits and seminars, highlighting new production techniques, delivery media, and information technology solutions. Our goal is to help all attendees become highly successful! We invite you to submit ideas for key topics that can help our visitors stay knowledgeable, relevant, and on the leading edge of their industries.

We seek high-level speakers with a proven track record of giving presentations to an engaged audience, including experts in breakthrough technologies, new forms of communication, and the future of media.
